OFFICE ORDER

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Vishaka and ors. Vs. State of Rajasthan and ors. (JT 1997(7) SC 384) has laid down guidelines and norms to be observed to prevent sexual harassment against women at work place. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has also directed for the setting up of a Complaints Committee to handle cases of sexual harassment against women. The DOPT vide its Office memorandum F.No. 11013/10/97-Estt.(A) dated 13.02.1998 has issued guidelines on the above subject.

It has been laid down in the above mentioned judgement that it is the duty of the employer or other responsible persons in work places or other institutions to prevent or deter the commission of acts of sexual harassment and to provide the procedure for the resolution, settlement or prosecution of acts of sexual harassment by taking all steps required. For this purpose, sexual harassment includes such unwelcome sexually determined behavior (whether directly or by implication) as:-

- a. physical contact and advances;
- b. a demand or request for sexual favours;
- c. sexually coloured remarks;
- d. showing pornography;
- e. any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

Attention in this connection is invited to Rule 3(i)(iii) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964, which provides that every Government servant shall at all times do nothing which is unbecoming of a Government servant. Any act of sexual harassment of women employees is definitely unbecoming of a Government servant and amount to misconduct. Appropriate disciplinary action will be initiated in such cases against the delinquent government servant in accordance with the Rules.
